The young generation around the world have walked out of school over the last year to demand real climate action from politicians. As people of faith, we commit to faithful lives of action, listen to the voice of the young, and join with them on Sept 20-27 for the global #ClimateStrike to demand solutions to the climate crisis. strikewithus.org/faith

Starting September 20, people of all ages in hundreds of countries are walking out of their jobs, homes, and classes to demand real climate action from our elected officials. This is a moral movement and faith communities have a responsibility to be leaders in this moral struggle. Will you join us? Learn more at strikewithus.org/faith

We need faith communities present at the Sept 20 #ClimateStrikes. We need prophetic voices demanding action in solidarity with those grappling with climate chaos. Climate action is an issue of our responsibility to care for and love each other well. #StrikeWithUs #FaithsForFuture strikewithus.org/faith
The lifestyles of the privileged result in harm to the less privileged and most vulnerable. As a person of privilege, I commit to ongoing learning to restore equity and take responsibility for causing harm to others. #StrikeWithUs #FaithsForFuture strikewithus.org/faith

The earth is a gift entrusted to us, borrowed from future generations. The #ClimateStrike is a step towards upholding our moral values and showing respect for those who came before us and those who will come after us. #StrikeWithUs #FaithsForFuture strikewithus.org/faith

On September 20, three days before the UN Climate Summit in NYC, young people and adults will strike all across the US and world to demand transformative action to address the climate crisis. I believe that my faith is calling me to support this strike. I will be following the lead of the young people in my city on September 20th, demanding that world leaders acknowledge, prioritize, and properly address this climate crisis. I hope you'll join me and the youth of the world for this important day of action. Learn more at strikewithus.org/faith

I believe I have contributed to the problem of climate change and am committed to being part of the solution. My faith calls me to acknowledge my short-comings and work to do better. I'm attending the #ClimateStrike on Sept 20th to contribute to the action needed to care for every living thing. #StrikeWithUs #FaithsForFuture strikewithus.org/faith
